

One call, wall-to-wall, home clean-out.

Maximize re-use and minimize waste.

When your movers are done, it's time to Empty the Nest!

When you make the call to Empty the Nest, we take care of the rest. We clean-out your home, wall-to-wall, to ready it for its next family.

We donate used clothing, household goods, and non-perishable food left behind to area charities, and give you their donation receipt.

We identify and save materials from your home that may otherwise be thrown away as trash and disperse them to recycling resources to limit waste in overloaded landfills. We sell the used furniture and unique items you no longer need, to offset your home clean-out costs.

If you find yourself facing a move, contact us. We're here to help. Empty the Nest. A simple mission that benefits everyone.
